"Recent Developments in Municipal Wireless Networks
The Industry at a Crossroads"

This presentation will discuss the latest developments in municipal wireless broadband deployments:

- The search for viable business models after EarthLink's decision to leave the market
  - Preliminary findings in the MuniWireless.com 2007 State of the Market Report
- Wi-Fi on public transport in Europe: Wi-Fi on buses in London, the Baltic Republics, the TGV and other high-speed trains

Esme Vos, esq., Founder of MuniWireless.com

Esme Vos is the founder of 'Muniwireless.com', the portal for information about municipal wireless broadband projects around the world. Esme began Muniwireless in 2003 as a blog and turned it into a small publishing operating with conferences, seminars and webinars.
